Council Commentary

The focus of this month's Council meeting was on preparing for the events that will take place over the next few months.

These range from the upcoming pastoral call to strategic planning that stems from this call and the Shared Ministry Covenant with St. Paul. After months of work, we are ready to move forward into what God has next for Calvary.

The final details are being considered for the pastoral call following a unanimous Council vote to move the process onto a final congregational vote on Sunday, June 3rd. A joint meeting of the Executive Committees from CLC and St. Paul reached agreement on the defined compensation and benefits package to be offered to the candidate. This information was then passed onto the Synod and the pastoral candidate for review followed by presentation to each congregation as a part of the voting process. An ongoing meeting structure is also being finalized to nurture the relationship with St. Paul supporting our ministries with each other and our communities.

Staff evaluations were recently conducted by the Executive Committee and reported to Council. Specific job descriptions for each position have been updated and reviewed with the employee for accuracy as part of this evaluation. Other issues discussed include support/resources need for their tasks as well as any concerns to be addressed. Finally, each employee was requested to consider opportunities to work with their colleague at St. Paul to increase impact and efficiency in their service to CLC.

Finally, our annual Council retreat for incoming and outgoing Council members will be held on May 19th at the Point Beach Lodge. A number of agenda items are being considered. These include: MSP review for insight into goal formation; ministry implications/opportunities stemming from the covenant with St. Paul; lay worship leadership empowerment and support; pastoral support through structured orientation and the mutual ministry program; and, of course, election of officers for 2018-19. Other ideas are certainly welcome...please share with one of the Council members.

cleaning!

We are in need of your gently used items to be donated for the sale. No clothing or shoes, please. We are accepting jewelry, purses and

bags, and any other household, holiday, decorative items, candles, furniture, etc. Items should be clean and in working order.
If the items are coming from another rummage
sale,

PLEASE REMOVE ALL PRICE TAGS!!

exercise equipment or TV's, please note that if they don't sell, you are responsible for Sunday, May 20 until the event. Please bring items down to the Fellowship Hall. The church

up tables and organizing the items on tables.
Workers are needed on the days of the sale and then a clean-up crew on Saturday after the sale
ends at 3:00 pm to box up all the items that are left.
